

Pantheism

I once was an ocean
I once was a sea
I once met a woman
Who meant a lot to me
Who bathed in the ocean
Who swam in the sea
Naked as a wet dream
She came close to me
I kissed this loving lady
And chased her thru the sea
I swam with her in the ocean
I loved with her in the sea
Till soon we learned our bodies
And she became part me
And I became an ocean
And I became a sea.
